Retail Merchant Association Plan Launched Here

Plans for the organization of a Retail Merchants Association in Palm Springs will be completed at a meeting next Wednesday afternoon at World War Memorial hall, Leo Baker, one of the sponsors for the new group, said yesterday.

The meeting will be called at 4 p. m. and all local merchants interested are urged to attend.

Plans for the organization, patterned along lines of the recently organized Hotel and Apartment House association, were launched at an informal meeting Tuesday attended by Baker, Fred Fulton, Newton Hotchkiss, Ken DuBose, Ed Landfield, George Clarke, Phil Delano, Bob McKenzie and Sol Ruskin.

It was agreed at the meeting that the individual problems of local merchants could better be solved through co-operation and action of an organized group.

Officials will be named and a platform mapped at next Wednesday afternoon's meeting at the Legion Hall, Baker said, and all local merchants were extended an invitation to attend.

Mary Pendery Adjudged Winner In Sun Contest

Mary Pendery staged a last minute spurt to pass Adele Woods in The Desert Sun's annual subscription contest for high school students and won the $300 first prize with Miss Woods being awarded the $75 second prize and Don Baker, winner of the third prize.

The contest came to an end Monday afternoon in a blaze of excitement as last minute votes came in. Sixteen high school students entered the event and all profited as those who did not win a prize, were paid commissions on the subscriptions they turned in.

Prizes were awarded the winners this week by Oliver B. Jaynes, publisher of The Sun.

More than $550 is being paid by The Desert Sun to Palm Springs high school students for prizes and commissions in the contest. This is the second year such a contest among high school students has been conducted by this newspaper. Mr. Jaynes said that this means of stimulating circulation was used because it served the dual objective of increasing circulation and making it possible for the students to earn substantial sums of money.

Mr. Jaynes said further that he wished to congratulate the prize winners, and all those who worked on the contest—and to thank the many residents of the community who assisted these students by giving them new or renewal subscriptions.

Ship me somewhere east of Suez
Where a man can raise a thirst
And I crib these lines to warn you
To get ready for the worst.
For three within the coming month
Take care, don't bump your nose,
As to the ballot box we go.
The doors of pubs will close.

The above warning is herein set forth as a public duty to those who like strength in their quaffable materials. . . . Next Tuesday, then on May 17 and on May 20, from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m., there are elections scheduled in the Village. . . . And each time, between those hours, there will be naught resembling the stuff that cheers as it scoffs, available. . . . That's another argument to stay until the end of May.

FIRST OFF TODAY I want to reply to those Villagers who took such an unseemly joy in the fact that I, or rather the automobile in which I was riding, ran out of gas last week, as duly chronicled in these columns. . . . Plan One Big Event a Day Next Season

C. of C. Board Maps Program to Extend Active Year Here

Board of directors of Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce met Monday afternoon with several items of interest coming to the attention of the group.

Two new members were named due to the resignations of Dick Joy, who has moved, and Phil Delano, owing to business commitments taking up too much time. To take their places Frank Prince and Charles McGann were named with Prince placed in charge of the Ways and Means committee while McGann will supervise the activities of the Conventions committee.

One of the most ambitious programs of the group was the plan to "extend the season at both ends" by the procuring of 90 special events for the first three months of the season commencing about the first of next October, an average of one per day.

ANOTHER ITEM of consideration was the Palm Springs railroad station relocation discussed thoroughly in a long report by a special committee to investigate the matter, the committee headed by Prince. No action was taken on the subject.

It was decided that the semi-annual report meeting would be held at the Plaza theatre the afternoon of April 27 at which time a reading of the activities of the chamber would be presented by the director with a formal work program outlined, including the responsibilities of each director in the program.

THE ANNUAL SPRING PARTY of the entire chamber was set for May 21 at the War Memorial building which will include a dance, drawings, and other forms of entertainment. Plans tentatively call for admission of less than one dollar with visitors invited.

Another item of interest to local people was the board's action in voting a resolution for the members and other Palm Springs residents to discontinue the planting of female cottonwood trees which are obnoxious to asthmatic sufferers and others ailing with bronchial afflictions as the pollen is quite heavy in the air. And in the line of planting, it was also suggested by Oliver Jaynes that Bermuda grass be treated the same—no further planting, for the same reasons.

Sister of Local Woman Passes

Mrs. Florian Boyd of the Village received word this week of the death of her sister, Joan Blaine in New York Monday.

Miss Blaine was a famous radio personality and considered among the leaders among radio actresses.

Besides Mrs. Boyd she is survived by her mother, Mrs. L. Blaine of Redding Ridge, Conn. Miss Blaine's home too, a sister, Mrs. Lysie Gray of Baltimore, Md., and two brothers, Edward of Fort Worth, Tex., and Robert of Albuquerque, N. M.

Last rites were said yesterday in Danbury, Conn.

Chief Urges Care In Guarding Gems

Police Chief August Kettmann said this week that in view of all the jewel losses in the Village, people are warned to protect their valuables due to the attraction here of underworld characters and clever thieves who come to this rich community where people are friendly and relaxed, there fore careless about valuable property.

THIS DIRECTORY will contain a master map of this eastern portion of Riverside and San Bernardino counties, together with maps of the many towns and including street guides of the large communities. It will list the city, state and federal representatives, give the leading organizations of the area and other information.

Mr. Jaynes, who has published the "Highland Park Buyers' Guide" in Los Angeles for the past 15 years, said that he believes the residents of the desert area will find this book to be highly useful—and that the business firms serving these communities will find it to be a highly effective advertising medium.

The directory will be an annual publication, issued by The Desert Sun, with a circulation of 25,000 copies for the 1949-50 edition.

WARING SAID the Lions club, invited as a body to the affair, has arranged for some handsome prizes and awards for the winners of the various contests and games.

The party is expected to be a highlight for the youngsters, all of whom he worked very hard, according to Bond and Officer Poe who extend a great deal of praise to the youthful patrol.

Cement Mill Referendum Set in Motion

Petitions, Seeking 5000 Names, Put Into Circulation

Petitions were to go into circulation today asking a referendum on the cement mill ordinance adopted by county supervisors by a 3 to 2 vote Monday against recommendations of county planners.

Desert Associates, meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Desert Magazine building in Desert Palms, voted to proceed with the plan to call a county-wide vote on granting an unregulated industrial zone in the area at the gateway to the desert and decided upon immediate action.

DEADLINE for filing the referendum petitions is May 18, 30 days following adoption of the M-2 (unregulated zone) by supervisors.

L. C. Lewis, president of the Desert Associates, presided at the session and outlined the program.

It is planned to obtain 5000 signatures to the petitions which will be placed in strategic positions here and in other desert communities and circulated throughout the county from Blythe to West Riverside and from northern to southern county lines.

TO INSURE a vote on the ordinance, 3600 signatures are needed, Harry C. Harper, Associates secretary said. The law provides that ten per cent of the vote cast at the last general election must be represented on petitions. Approximately 35,800 votes were cast in the last November. To insure the success of the petitions, it was decided to obtain 5000 signatures to provide a safe margin.

The moment the petition is filed it automatically holds up operation of the ordinance adopted this week.

ELECTION to decide the issue would fall in July at the earliest possible date. Because many of the people most interested in barring the industrial zone at the outskirts of the city will be away at the time, Desert Associates also mapped a campaign to see that all who are gone, vote by absentee ballots.

"I don't think we'll have any trouble getting the necessary signatures," said Lewis. "We know how the desert feels about it. The balance of the book will be devoted to paid listings and display advertisements of those serving the area, classified by trade or profession. This section will not be broken down by towns or localities. In other words, all of the automobile dealers of the various towns will be listed under "Automobile Dealers." Thus it will be possible through the medium of this directory to find the leading firms

Comprehensive Business Directory Covering Entire Desert Area Ready This Fall

Publication of a business directory serving the entire desert area, to be issued early next fall, is announced this week by Oliver B. Jaynes, publisher of The Desert Sun. To be known as the "Desert Empire Buyers' Guide," the directory will be delivered free to residents throughout the area. It will serve as the first guide ever to be published of the business and professional firms located in—or serving—this fast-growing agricultural and recreational empire.

The book will be delivered to residents in these four sections of the area:

San Geronimo Pass—including Beaumont, Banning and Cabazon.

Palm Springs and vicinity—including the city of Palm Springs, Cathedral City, Desert Hot Springs and the other residential subdivisions.

Coachella Valley district—including Indio, Coachella, Thermal, Mecca etc.

Great Morongo Basin—including Morongo Valley, Twenty-nine Palms, Yucca Valley, Joshua Tree and the numerous localities in the valley.

THE DIRECTORY will contain a master map of this eastern portion of Riverside and San Bernardino counties, together with maps of the many towns and including street guides of the large communities. It will list the city, state and federal representatives, give the leading organizations of the area and other information.

Mr. Jaynes, who has published the "Highland Park Buyers' Guide" in Los Angeles for the past 15 years, said that he believes the residents of the desert area will find this book to be highly useful—and that the business firms serving these communities will find it to be a highly effective advertising medium.

A contest loomed in this year's school board election with the close of nominations Wednesday at the office of County School Superintendent E. E. Smith.

Two candidates are in the field for the one position open on the Palm Springs Unified School board at the May 20 election.

Conrad B. Nelson, of Desert Hot Springs, incumbent, took out his nomination papers early.

Close Bond Campaign Confident of Victory

State Convention of Amvets Next Month to Bring Record Number of Veterans to City

California Amvets in state convention here May 6, 7, and 8, will mix hard work and play during their stay in the Village, topped with public participation at a carnival to be held at the Stables and a jamboree and beauty contest at the Tennis Club.

The lure of Palm Springs as a famed winter resort, according to local Commander Jay Rollman, will bring the largest delegation of Amvets in the organization's state history to the Village.

AN EX-GENERAL and former officers of high rank in Navy, Marines, Army, Coast Guard, Sea Bees and Air Forces will mix in democratic convention with former enlisted men, all old ranks forgotten.

The search for Miss Amvet of 1949 will reach its climax at the Tennis Club Saturday night May 7. At that time entrants representing the various posts throughout the state will parade in revealing bathing suits for judges.

THE WINNER will have the door of opportunity opened to her with a screen test by Les Soller at RKO studios and color screen and talking test by Harris Productions, Hollywood. She will also be interviewed on television in Los Angeles.

Selection of the local beauty to represent Palm Springs Post 34 will take place in the Village May 4. Already the following entrants and their sponsors have entered the contest: Miss Laura Lou Jahn, sponsored by Cliff Henderson of Palm Desert; Miss Yvonne Slater, sponsored by Sage and Sun, Palm Village; Miss Eddy Savage, as Miss Chi Chi; Miss Fortune Tucci, as Miss Hitting Post and Joyce Dresner who will represent Del Tahquitz Hotel.

EXCITED by the forthcoming event, Harry Oliver, announced yesterday that he too will have an entrant to represent Post Oliver.

Other events during the convention will include a carnival night at "The Stables," Square dancing will be on tap as well as other entertainment.

In addition to the beauty contest at the Tennis Club, dancing, fun and other excitement will be offered with the public invited.

5,000 Shriners Expected Here For Ceremonial

Reservations were coming in at the rate of 50 a day for the Shrine Ceremonial scheduled for May 7, Lloyd Simon, chairman of the Palm Springs Shrine Club housing committee said yesterday.

The local club will be host, so far as arrangements are concerned, for 5000 Shriners who will participate in the big event of the year for Al Malaikan Shrine of Los Angeles when several hundred candidates will "Cross the Hot Sands" to become Nobles, or as the public generally knows them, Shriners.

The Saturday program begins with a parade along Palm Canyon drive from Alamo road to Ramon at 1 p. m. The ceremonial for Shriners and the candidates only, will take up the remainder of the afternoon. There will be a Moslem style barbecue at 5 p. m. for the Shriners who wish to participate. After this, the Shriners are being told, "You are on your own to enjoy to the fullest the diversions and entertainments provided by Palm Springs."

Bill Leonasio, president of the local Shrine Club, says he is confident there will be well over the number of Shriners who attended the desert ceremonial two years ago. The total in 1947 was said to have been 3500. Many will come on Friday and remain over till Sunday, it is expected.

"Our club has been given the services of the chamber of commerce for this occasion," Leonasio said, "and our committee on housing headed by Lloyd Simon, and assisted by Joe George, Arthur Greenfield, Maynard Mead and Fred Ellison will take reservations as they come in and route them to the hotels and apartments that have listed themselves as desiring rentals for the period required."

Warner S. Moon Enters School Election Contest

Warner S. Moon of Cathedral City filed Wednesday as a surprise candidate.

The election will be held May 20 with polling places designated as Frances Stevens school here, Cathedral City school and Desert Hot Springs school.

Other members of the Unified district board whose terms continue are Dr. F. A. Purcell, Roland Valle, Hilton McCabe and Mrs. Melba Bennett.

Civic Committee Issues Plea For Large Turn Out at Polls At Tuesday's Bond Election

Village is For Issue Strongly Says Hinkle, Committee Chairman, But Must Say So at the Ballot Box to Insure Success of Program

With the belief that the entire Village is for the five-point civic improvement program, Chairman Barney Hinkle of the Citizens Committee for Civic Improvement, said that the last big hurdle will be eliminated if the voters show up at the polls next Tuesday.

Voters of the Village have received in today's mail a brochure listing the reasons for the improvements, enumerated in the five different categories, each of which will require a "YES" vote to pass the issue in its entirety.

TOTAL AMOUNT of the issue is $950,000 with interest of two and a half per cent. First year's payment will be $71,250 with each succeeding year's payments less. At the present time the Village's assessed valuation is approximately $20,000,000 with the tax rate being about $6.00 for each $100 of assessed valuation. With an increase of only 35 cents the first year (decreasing each year thereafter) the first year's payment of $71,250 will be paid.

"In other words, a Palm Springs home assessed at $5000 would be taxed only $17.50 the first year for the construction of public rest rooms in the downtown area, palm trees and street lighting on Palm Canyon drive and other necessary places, acquiring of and improvements thereof, some of the Torrey holdings for a public park, development of the Field Club into a top-rating rodeo ground and ball park, and finally, street surfacing, curbs, sidewalks, rights-of-way and other needed street improvements—a pretty darned good investment," said Hinkle.

TO PASS THE BONDS it is necessary for two-thirds of the voters to assent with a great big "YES" on each of the five issues under consideration. Among the many organizations of the Village who are interested in the 100 per cent acceptance of the issues by the voters are those who are lending their names to the program are the Home Owners League, Desert Circus Committee, Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment association board of directors, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Chamber of Commerce board of directors, Palm Springs Employers association, St. Theresa Mothers, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Lions club and the Palm Springs Soroptimists—all behind the drive 100 per cent.

Persons requiring or desiring transportation to the polls next Tuesday are requested to telephone 2306 and rides will be provided.

According to all who have studied the bond propositions, as a straight business deal it is sound. And as a civic investment for the convenience, comfort and beauty of the Village it is worthy of everyone to get out to the polls to vote "YES."

Spring Carnival To Aid Scout Building Fund

Plans for the Spring Carnival and Jamboree, to be staged by Girl Scouts of the Palm Springs chapter at its special award dinner at Del Tahquitz Wednesday evening.

Attended by more than 100 persons the affair is said by members to have been one of the best of the season. Presenting the award, Dr. Robert Backstrom, president, named Dunlap as having done the most outstanding work of the members during the year. Six other certificates of merit were awarded other outstanding men: Ed Hawkins, Dick Beaumont, Bill Darwin, Don Miller, Sal Alessandro and Al Loukiner were so named.

State Vice President Cliff Bruder of Riverside was one of the dignitaries present and he spoke briefly on Jaycee work here and elsewhere and what it means to the community.

The event will be held from 5 p. m. to 10 p. m. April 29 on the Mashe Course of the Desert Inn. Proceeds from the event go to swell the building fund of the organization.

Donations of $1 for adults pay for the dinner and program with children asked to donate 50 cents.

Donations may be made at a booth at the Bank of America or to any civic organization, all of whom will have ticket committees to aid in the event, at their regular meetings.

The PUBLISHER'S Corner

by OLIVER B. JAYNES

COMMUNITIES DON'T STAND STILL—they either grow or slide back. This is particularly true of a place like Palm Springs which has grown so fast over a short period of time. Unless a determined effort is made to expand facilities in proportion to growth, residents and visitors become dissatisfied and seek other places. Palm Springs has arrived at that crossroad right now. The public improvements that will be made possible through the coming bond issue are a positive necessity if the community is to grow and prosper. We need them right now. They must be looked upon as an investment rather than an expense.

Almost every one who comes here complains that we have no public park and playground facilities—no public rest rooms, and very inadequate facilities for such events as rodeos, horse shows, baseball games and exhibitions. If this bond issue is approved, we will have a fine city park with recreational and playground facilities—and the Field Club will be developed to handle a wide variety of events. The chamber of commerce events committee is working hard on a program to start in the fall. They must have a better place to hold these events or many will not be possible. The present accommodations out there are almost a disgrace.

The proposed street improvements and better fire protection are vitally needed. We can't see how any resident could look upon them otherwise. The widening of Indian Avenue and opening of a street in the center of town between Palm Canyon Drive and McCullum Way will greatly relieve the serious traffic problem. Planting palms along Palm Canyon with effective lighting will transform our main thoroughfare into a famed avenue of beauty. (The state will resurface the street this summer.)

THE COST of all these improvements will not add greatly to the average taxpayer's bill. As we have said before, it is an investment that should certainly turn out to be justified. It is estimated a person who owns a home valued at $20,000 (assessed valuation of about $5000) will pay approximately $17.50 a year. The improvements seem worth the cost in sustaining property values if for no other reason. . . . Voters must remember that it takes a two-thirds favorable vote to pass a bond election. They should plan now to be here next Tuesday and cast their vote in this important decision.

Village Schools to be Hosts During Public School Week

Palm Springs schools will be hosts next week, Public School week, Monday through Friday, and invitations have been extended to parents and friends to attend open house events and dedications of two new buildings. Palm Springs Masons plan to take an active part in the event which is sponsored state-wide by the Masonic organization. Dr. Arthur Hoff of the Palm Springs Unified School District announced open house programs from 7 to 9 p. m. at Cathedral City and Cahulla schools Monday; from 1:30 to 3 p. m. at Desert Hot Springs and at the new North End school from 7 to 9 p. m. Tuesday; from 1:30 to 3 p. m. at Frances Stevens school, from 2 to 3 p. m. at Thousand Palms school and from 7 to 9 p. m. at Nellie N. Coffman junior high Wednesday; and from 7:30 to 10 p. m. at the high school Thursday. Dedicatory exercises will be held at the North End school at

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the nation's future lies in the classrooms of America's schools and the course the United States will take tomorrow is being decided in the Public Schools today, and WHEREAS, it is of utmost importance that we, as Americans vitally interested in the continuing progress of this nation, support and aid the schools to the best of our ability.

THEREFORE, I, as mayor of Palm Springs, proclaim the week of April 25, 1949 as Public School Week in this city in keeping with the state and national observance, and urge every Villager to take part in the open house programs at the various schools of the city and also to attend the dedication programs at the new buildings erected to further the cause of education here. And I further urge a continuing interest in our schools so that we may intelligently encourage their steady advancement.

CHARLES D. FARRELL, Mayor. Dated April 20, 1949.

8:30 p. m. Tuesday and at the high school at the new gymnasium and cafeteria building at 8 p. m. Thursday.

Architects and members of the school board, contractors and others will be on the platform. At the North End school Miss Katherine Finch, long identified with Village schools, will be the principal speaker and at the high school program, Jim Willis, president of the student body, will be heard in the main address.

An excellent program has been lined up at the high school following the dedication exercises including a water carnival in the new pool and refreshments in the new cafeteria building.

Nothing To It, Says Easley

"Nothing to it," said Supervisor James Easley, representing the desert district at Riverside, to reports current that he planned to resign his position.

"Truth of the matter is," he said, "I'm trying to plan it so that I can get a little rest, re-couple from the strain of the past few months and rebuild my strength. It has been strenuous at the court house."

Reports that the Villager had written his resignation and some that he had already handed it in, have been heard several times this week.

Mexican Colony To Stage Bazaar For Church Fund

Another Bazaar is being planned by the Mexican Colony as a benefit to the Little Church on the Reservation which is being replaced by a new structure.

The event will be held Sunday night at the Boys Clubhouse on East Andreas road and an excellent program of entertainment and Mexican dinner is being prepared.

The Jamaica, as it is termed, will start off with all of the excellent Mexican dishes and entertainment and at 9 p. m. dancing will be in order to the music of the Sabino Marmelejo Rhumba band.

Father Ramon Klumbis of the Reservation church promised everyone an excellent time at the Jamaica. The church, one of the oldest in the Village, was recently razed as it was termed dangerous and a new building is to go up. Sunday night's affair is to provide funds for the new building.

Sid Canales is president of the Mexican Colony.

The Telephone System is like an Orchestra

Supplying telephone service is not just a matter of installing an instrument... you must have a full orchestra to get results.

You must have wire, cable, poles, switches, batteries—a multitudinous variety of parts—properly placed, connected and working together in harmony. All these things take time to set up and run into many dollars.

$2,500,000 FOR DEVELOPMENT IN 1949

Last year your telephone company spent over $2,000,000 to expand and improve its facilities. This year, 1949, it will spend $2,500,000 more for plant additions. Our goal is to develop an orchestra of telephone parts capable of giving you, and everyone who wishes a telephone, the finest service in the Nation.

Soroptimists to Sell Village at Phoenix Session

Declaring they are not only going to Phoenix to act as delegates for the Southwest district convention but also to act as saleswomen for Palm Springs.

President Madge Holderman and seven or eight other members of the Palm Springs Soroptimists leave today at 12:30 p. m. for the three-day convention in the Arizona city loaded with chambers of commerce bulletins to distribute to the conventioners there.

In conjunction with Chamber Manager William J. Dunkerley, the group will leave Palm Springs station with 250 folders describing the Village for the information and edification of the many delegates expected to attend the convention honoring the national president, Gertrude G. Huitt.

The group will board the special train which started out from San Francisco early this morning, picking up delegates along the line. Approximately 600 delegates are expected to attend the convention representing the 95 clubs in the southwest district which includes California, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico and Hawaii.

Among the many notables to attend will be Regional Director Emily N. Ziegler of San Diego who was honored in the Village two weeks ago, and Mrs. Jimmie Beronio of El Centro, a member of the board of directors.

The delegation is expected to return Sunday evening.

County to Close Old Well Shafts

County Counsel Earl Redwine was preparing an ordinance to day requiring the covering of all old well and mine shafts in the county while supervisors started a survey of the county to determine how many there were.

It was reported that "dozens of reports" of abandoned shafts had come in since the Kathy Ficus tragedy.

Many of the old shafts are on government property.

300 Participate In Seder Dinner

Palm Springs Jewish Community Center held its second annual Passover Seder last week in a very happy and exceptionally well-attended feast.

Rabbi Abraham Winokur, director of the Hillel Foundation at the University of Southern California, and former chaplain in the armed forces, conducted the traditional services. A feature of the celebration was the reading of the Haggadah, the story of the Exodus.

The dinner was served in the War Memorial Building, with over 300 persons attending. Many were unable to secure tickets due to lack of space and facilities. Messrs. Ed Landfield and Fred Gray entered the delicious holiday dinner. Mrs. I. Becker was in charge of dinner arrangements and reservations and did a most efficient job.

BETTER DRIVING FOR BETTER LIVING—Placed at the northern and southern city limits of the city on highway 111 are 10 by 12 foot signs reproduced above to encourage safer driving in the Village. Designed by Earl Cordrey, Village artist of national note, the signs were painted by Dale Stoner, under the supervision of George Bond, of the school system. The first sign at the north end of town was sponsored by the junior chamber of commerce, followed by the erection of the one at the south limits by the American Legion, Post 519. Two more similar signs will be erected next fall on N. Indian avenue and on E. Ramon road, one to be sponsored by the Rotary club and the other by the various women's organizations of the Village. Soroptimists, Business Women's club, Women's club, Jewish Women and the Catholic Mothers club.

Rotarians Hear Interesting Talk on Metals by Villager

Coming soon—a light metals age.

William H. Eisenman, 220 Hermosa place, made this forecast Wednesday in addressing the Palm Springs Rotary Club at its regular meeting in the Desert Inn. He said aluminum, magnesium and titanium will play their respective parts in production of lighter automobiles, aircraft, cameras, portable typewriters and many other devices.

EISENMAN, who is secretary of the American Society for Metals, said these lighter metals will be used in alloying with steel to a far greater extent than is currently practiced.

"They'll help motorists get more miles to the gallon," he continued, "and will enable airplanes to bear constantly increasing cargo loads."

"Further, they will relieve muscular strain and inhibit fatigue for those who carry metallic objects in their daily rounds of business."

METALS, Eisenman said, are entering the comparatively new field of cybernetics. In this range of application, they are formed into parts for machines which appear to do the thinking for themselves.

Such assemblies, he said, are very complex. Cybernetics embraces high speed computing mechanisms which in the blink of an eyelash solve mathematical problems that would keep an advanced student of calculus busy with pencil and paper half his lifetime.

Boys to Choose Leaders Today

Today is election day at the Boys' club.

A mayor, police chief, judge, jury and policemen will be chosen as the club expands its home rule program.

The boys will police their own quarters, consider the cases of violators of the rules and recommend remedial action.

Eisenman just has completed managing the Western Metal Congress and Exposition at Shrine Convention Hall, Los Angeles. Technical sessions and exhibits attracted approximately 40,000 metal engineers and plant operators from the 11 western states.

Dr. C. H. Woodmansie Heads Palm Springs Cancer Drive

Dr. C. H. Woodmansie of the Desert Clinic has been named local chairman of the American Cancer society drive and will have charge of the annual campaign now under way.

Walter V. Pittman, former chairman county supervisors, is county chairman and announced that the county quota on the educational and fund raising campaign is $15,000.

HE EXPLAINED that little stress is being made of the actual monetary goal this year.

"We have been assigned a quota of $15,000," he said, "but this is our minimum goal. There is no limit to what we should do in fighting cancer. If more than this minimum amount can be raised, it can be used to good advantage."

Last year, Pittman pointed out the national figure was far below needs and more than $1,000,000 in promising cancer research projects had to be turned down for lack of funds.

PHARMACISTS of Palm Springs will observe National Pharmacy Week, April 24 to 30, in conjunction with the American Cancer Society drive. Dedication of the week to the cause of cancer control, druggists will display educational posters and distribute literature about cancer.

National Pharmacy Week is sponsored by the American Pharmaceutical Association which has dedicated the occasion for the third consecutive year to the fight to conquer cancer.

More State Cash Open Bids Soon To Local Schools On Parish House

Public schools of Riverside county this year will receive $7,489,085 in state and local support, compared with $6,403,298 for last year, California Taxpayers' association reported this week, analyzing recent trends in public support in California.

This year the school districts of the county are receiving $3,675,995 in state support in addition to the $3,613,090 levied in property taxes for their support. Last year, state support of the schools in the county totaled $3,414,577 with property tax levies for the schools amounting to $2,988,721.

Over the state as a whole, state and local support of the school districts totals $443,563,550 this year, compared with $370,803,392 for 1947-48.

Clark and Frey, architects in charge of the new parish building to be constructed for St. Paul's in the Desert, said yesterday that the bids were originally to be opened and the award given Tuesday, April 19, but because many of the members of the board of directors are out of town this has been postponed.

John Clark, spokesman for the firm, believed the bids would be acted upon in about three weeks. New work will include a parish hall to seat approximately 250 persons, a church office, kitchen to accommodate church suppers and other necessary quarters for such a project.

A gold nugget found in 1869 weighed 157 pounds according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Real Estate Head Attacks Housing Bill

"Congress is presently considering a socialistic housing bill, which, if it becomes law, will cost the American taxpayers a minimum of $15,000,000,000," H. H. Foster, president of the Palm Springs real estate board, declared today. "The creeping hand of Socialism is squeezing our country tighter and tighter every day. If federal bureaucrats in Washington move into the housing industry, watch for accelerated expansion into medicine, steel production, and other fields," the Real Estate Board official warned.

"The building industry has done a tremendous job in turning out houses since the war. Proponents of public housing seem to ignore this. They also ignore the fact that in many areas throughout the nation there is actually a surplus of new homes for sale. Why then the demand for public housing."

"Realtors have worked for many years to expand home ownership in this country. We now have the highest ratio of home ownership on earth. We have the best housing in the world, and more of it per thousand and of population than any other nation. Is all this to be changed by a handful of planners and job seekers? Will life in a barracks-type public housing development be the vogue of the future?"

"Palm Springs Real Estate board urges all Villagers to protest this measure to congressmen."

New Zoning Law Amended Again

Riverside county's new basic zoning ordinance will be amended again.

At Monday's session County Counsel Earl Redwine was instructed to prepare a clause changing the section which provides that any variance recommendation of the county planning commission cannot be overridden except by a two-thirds vote.

Under the proposed change, supervisors will be able to override recommendations by a three-fifths vote.

The first newspaper straw poll was conducted in Harrisburg, Pa., in 1824, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

First Easter Dawn Service At Cathedral City Attracts Large Reverent Throng

Now that Easter is past the story of the first sunrise service in Cathedral City can be told. The morning was fresh with soft tints of pink in the clouds directly over the mountains in the east. The first rays of the sun caught the snow on the ridge in the west and a few minutes later the sun shone brightly from the east as the bugler on the mountain sounded the trumpet call to worship. The service was sweet in its simplicity. Of the over 200 who had quietly and reverently gathered there for the service, 176 remained for the friendly breakfast that followed. Thanks go to the business men and KCMJ for the radio announcements and to all who so generously helped to make it a success.

Cathedralites Aid In Building Park

It is not unusual in Cathedral City for the men and women to don their work clothes and labor together to accomplish some community project. This winter they finished the inside of the Town Hall, the Girl Scout House, and staged the Cactus Jumpers Jamboree. Now many of these same people may be seen working in the sun at the site of the new recreation park.

The land for the park was generously given by Walter Melrose of the Sunair Development Co. and is deeded to the Chamber of Commerce. L. C. Lewis president of the Chamber called a meeting of the newly created park board last week and plans were gotten under way for preliminary work to be done this summer and actual work on the recreational features to be done in the early fall.

The board members are Paul Clark, Claude Cobb, W. R. Hillery, James W. Kyle, C. W. Harrison and Warner S. Moon.

C. W. Harrison has been in charge of grading the streets. Bob Sherrill secured the pipe and meter for the water main. Prof. Kyle has planned cuttings ready for planting and Bill Hillery is acting as Chairman of the board.

There is fine silt to be found on the north and west boundaries where the trees are to be planted for a windbreak and landscaping to be put in later.

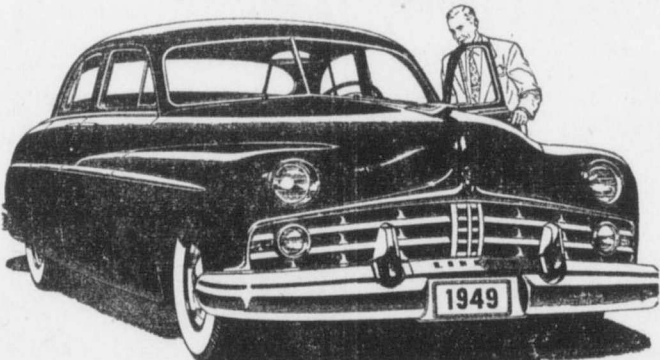

On Tuesday the 12, Jan Ide and Janet Crawford celebrated their birthdays with a family gathering for dinner at the Crawfords.

On Wednesday night between 30 and 40 members of the Rifle Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Camp for their annual dinner.

Palm Desert Sunbeams

By Edith Eddy Ward

Easter week at Palm Desert was just one round of gaiety after another, with social activities featured for the junior members of the Shadow Mountain Club and their young guests. On Wednesday evening, the youngsters enjoyed a special buffet supper on the terrace, participated in relay races, hide and seek and had the large pool to themselves for almost an hour in what was called the "Splash Party". The pool was alive with little figures jumping off the side, sliding down the chutes, diving off the boards and swimming after gaily colored balloons. The climax was a huge marshmallow roast.

Thursday night, the night for square dancing at the club, the juniors had a special dinner and square dance of their own. The climax of Easter week for the children was the egg hunt on Easter morning, for which the winners received bright Easter baskets filled to the brim with candy Easter eggs and chocolate bunnies. The drawing of numbers out of a bowl entitled the lucky ones to receive a little fluffy chick or yellow duckling.

That was really the highlight of their day and great was the excitement when they came to claim their live prizes and put them into boxes to be carried proudly home. To the delight of juniors and adults alike, a real magician appeared on Sunday afternoon and wove his spells of magic. He was Don Marteen from Santa Barbara and well known in Palm Springs for his Spanish songs and guitar music, as well as his magic.

While the fashion show Sunday was lovely, the outstanding event was the children's Easter promenade led by little Pamela Peck and Sidney Stokes—both 2½ years old. They were so tiny that Cliff Henderson had to help them onto the platform. Those little children parading around the club pool in their new Easter finery was a sight to behold! The Oh's and Ah's as they went around proved the appreciation of the audience. Curly headed Mary Lou Ballard won the prize for little girls; Pamela Peck and Sidney Stokes for personality; Diane and Darlene Dodge for sisters; Judy Lee and Gretchen Williams for costume and Kirk Steele for little boys.

First sunrise services in the natural amphitheatre marked the beginning of Easter at Palm Desert. Rev. John Robertson Macartney conducted the service with music by the Palm Springs high school glee club. The reading of the Scriptures by little Stephen Rutgers Jr. was beautifully done and the recitation of Henry VanDyke's "God of the Open Air" by Dr. Macartney was truly inspirational. The Ray Dodges were much in evidence last week-end. They gave a dinner party on Friday night. Mr. Dodge donated trophies at the Friday night club dance and their two young daughters, Diane and Darlene, were selected to model some of the children's clothes during the fashion show. Also modeling the junior clothes designed by Jean Durain, America's foremost designer of children's clothes, were Cathy Lawrence, Becky Chapman, Margaret Hunter and little Michael Barton. O. S. Weide, executive vice-president and general manager of the Constitution Life Co. of America, spent Easter week at Palm Desert with Mrs. Weide and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bronson G. Lewis. Mr. Lewis is secretary-treasurer of the California Brewers Assoc. They were very impressed with the club and Mr. Weide complimented Cliff Henderson on the progress which has been made in such a short time and predicted a great future for Palm Desert.

Laura Lou has done it again! Fifteen-year-old daughter of Leslie Jahn, tennis pro at Shadow Mountain Club, Laura Lou won the Dudley tennis trophy for girls last Saturday in a grueling, three-hour match opposite Anita Kanter of Santa Monica high school, 7-9; 6-3; and 7-5. Approximately 2000 people witnessed the victory, which gave Laura Lou the honor of carrying away for the Coachella Valley high school the Eddie cup. It will be theirs permanently if they win it again for the next two years. (There is not much doubt about it if Laura Lou is still attending the school.) In addition, she was presented with a table-model radio for herself with her name inscribed on it. Upon returning home to Palm Desert, she was taken to the club where Cliff Henderson stopped the show to announce the good news and introduce her to the members and guests. An attractive, blue-eyed blonde, Laura Lou has been chosen Miss Palm Desert and entered in the Amvets beauty contest to be held in Palm Springs on April 7th.

Seen dining at Shadow Mountain Club was Frank Morgan, beloved by millions of movie fans, who joined friends for dinner on Easter Sunday. Also dining at the club as a guest of Rosalie Picone, was Edwardo Cansino, father of Rita Hayworth. He is the owner of the famous Cansino dance studios in Los Angeles and New York and brought along his star pupil—nine-year-old Elsa Lorraine, who has appeared in the "Loves of Carmen" with Rita Hayworth, and appears currently in "Angels in Exile" with John Carroll. During the Easter festivities, Elsa Lorraine put on a dance called the "Chis-peneus" under the watchful eyes of her proud teacher.

A special trip was made to Palm Desert by members of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce who flew down to see the famous Shadow Mountain Club. Amongst the members were Austin Conover, Hollywood Citizen News; J. N. Fishburn, vice presi-

Sentiment is definitely for Desert Bank

Cathedral City Round-Up

Mrs. O. A. Torgerson will return from San Francisco within a few days and be joined in Los Angeles by her husband where they will select furnishings for their new home. The Torgersons have purchased the adobe house at the corner of Cathedral Canyon drive and G Street of Robert Sherrill of the Water Development company. This house is unusually well planned for desert living and commands a fine view of the valley and dunes.

Next week is National School Week and the Cathedral City School is open to visitors all day. However, Mrs. Emory, the principal, extends an invitation from her and her staff to all citizens whether they have school children or not, to attend the open house from seven to nine on Monday night, April 25. A kindergarten class started in April with an enrollment of 15 and one teacher, Mrs. Miller, for a morning session held from 9:00 to 11:00.

Mrs. L. F. Seittlinger and sons of N. Hollywood spent Easter week with the H. G. Crawfords. Lillian Weston of Wonder Palms Road gave a shower for Helen Carnahan on Monday night.

Raymond Hatton was named as an honorary pallbearer for Wallace Berry who died in Los Angeles last week. It is reported that Larry O'Gara of Costa Mesa is the successful bidder on the contract for the building and electric light fixtures for the Desert Bank. The wood will be fine grained light walnut. There will be many new and novel features. The counters will be divided into compartments so that privacy may be had by patrons as they write their checks. For the convenience of those who like to sit there will be desks with chairs.

The work on the construction of the building is going on ahead of schedule. The up-to-date building at the east end of Broadway which is the property of George Rennet dent of the Bank of America; Worth Larkin, manager of the publicity department of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce; William J. MacFadyen, manager of the public relations department of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce; William P. Mealey, deputy city attorney; Kenneth Nevins, Los Angeles Times, and Oscar A. Trippett, Morrow and Trippett, vice-president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

is fast nearing completion. The pie shaped front has an area of 1200 sq. ft. with the two sides almost entirely of glass set in double faced chrome and this will make a handsome store. The building is constructed of pumice stone blocks for the sake of coolness and is fireproof. A four foot overhang extending entirely around the one story building will furnish protection from glare. A five ft. concrete sidewalk of a soft green color is being laid along the 140 ft. on Broadway and on the 2nd St. side.

Cathedral C. of C. To Vote Tuesday

The annual election of Chamber of Commerce directors will be held at the Town Hall next Tuesday April 26 at 7:30 p. m. The nominating committee has recommended for directors, Gordon, Greener, Headley, Nordstrom, Scherck, Lewis, Torgerson, Sherrill, Rupp and Scott. Additional nominations may be made from the floor. Hold over directors are Moon, Hillery, Cobb, Clark and Davidson. In addition to the election the annual report will be made by the various officers and committee chairmen.

President L. C. Lewis pointed out yesterday that much has been accomplished this past year in the way of road paving, redecorating the Town Hall interior, initiating a zoning program and starting development of the community recreation park. Much work lies ahead in successfully completing these projects he stated, and urges that every member pay his or her dues immediately.

Waste Collection Rates to Go Up

At a special meeting of the Cathedral Sanitation District board called to consider finances it was found that a small increase in garbage collection rates would be necessary next season. It was pointed out that Cathedral City collection rates are considerably less than in other communities in this section and most of the small amount of money received from taxes will have to go for the proposed dump site purchase.

Wandering About With Marij

By Marjorie Grant Pohl

I Saw: The desert home of MR. and MRS. FRED CLAMPETT, which will be their address till June first, the setting for a gala cocktail party given in honor of MR. and MRS. JAMES WAGSTAFF of Detroit (he is vice president and general manager of DeSoto), which was followed by dinner and an evening of dancing at the Racquet Club. The CLAMPETT's other guests were MR. and MRS. BURCH GREEN at whose Smoke Tree Ranch home the WAGSTAFFS are guests, MR. and MRS. EASTMAN MARKELL and MRS. T. CARL THOMPSON.

BURCH and NONIE GREEN hosted a large cocktail party at their home the previous evening which saw some eighty odd guests gathered in their patio to meet or say howdy to the WAGSTAFFS. The village's favorite cowboy singer JOHNNY BOYLE gave with his popular brand of music, and attractive and talented MRS. THOMPSON added her voice for several numbers to the delight of the assembled group. The DICK RICHARDS, who we have seen but seldom this season, were there as were the FLOYD TURNERS, MR. and MRS. WALT DISNEY (who have been enjoying their annual trek to the Smoke Tree colony), MR. and MRS. DAVE STUART, the GEORGE MILLERS, DR. and MRS. HENRY DOLLARD, MR. and MRS. LYNN SPENCER (society editor of the Los Angeles Examiner) MR. and MRS. JOHN LUCCARENI, ANN HUTCHINSON, the PAUL HELMS, MRS. HORACE ARMSTRONG, MRS. BEATTY McCULLOUGH, and MR. and MRS. C. W. STIMSON.

Little Tuscany was the setting for a merry and youthful outdoor eat and have fun gathering Monday night when MR. and MRS. ROD BURNHAM trekked their youngsters BEGAY, KAREN and RICKY there and invited DOLORES (MRS. BOB HOPE) and her two oldest LINDA and TONY and MR. and MRS. VERLE FRY and their daughter PATSY to join them. The evening before MRS. HOPE had the same group, with the exception of the FRYs and MR. BURNHAM who were not down from Los Angeles then, to her home for a swimming party and barbecue. Also present were her two smallest KELLY and NORA, and MR. and MRS. DAVID ROSE and their youngsters ALLAN and CAROLINE and her own young guests PETER MOLATESTA and LEE SMITH. 'Twas a delightful evening. Incidentally BOB HOPE left on another of his country wide tours immediately after spending Easter with his family.

MRS. VINCENT MARCO entertained at the Tennis Club the other evening for her houseguests MR. and MRS. EARL BERNHEIMER of Beverly Hills. Her other guests for the pleasant dining occasion were BILLY and VICKI MALOUF, RULOV and LELA FREE, MRS. MAYME COMSTOCK (her mother) and the BERT MAFRE, entertaining the same evening were MR. and MRS. HAROLD MURPHY who numbered among their guests MR. and MRS. CHARLES WARREN of Fort Collins, Colorado, staying at Ingleside Inn, MR. and MRS. RAMON HANDY (who were the Murphy's houseguests) and MR. and MRS. "TOGI" TORGERSON (he is the prexy of the new bank that's building out Cathedral City way) across the room AUSTIN and PEARL MCMAUS were entertained in the charge of operations of Western Hotels Inc.) and MR. and MRS. WILLARD ABEL of the Sir Frances Drake in San Francisco.

Personalities about town... PEGGY ANN GARNER (child star) looking very grown up dining with ARTHUR ANDERSON... DAVE CICEO of International News picture talking about Palm Springs for a picture story of our village... BILL and BRENDA MARSHALL HOLDEN about the village with their three youngsters, VIRGINIA, WES and SCOTT... MR. and MRS. REESE TAYLOR (Union Oil's top man) driving leisurely about with their children... MAJOR ROBERT DE HAVEN chatting with fellow flyer, now village photog, MAURICE TERRY at the Tennis Club... BOB is unofficial holder of the Jet Division speed run for the Bendix Race, as well as holding the speed records from Los Angeles to St. Louis and from San Francisco to Los Angeles... CHARLES and VIRGINIA FARRELL hosting a dinner party at the Racquet Club for NORA FLYNN, HAROLD and CAROLINE HICKS, the ED SILVERMANS and radio and screen favorite DICK HAYMES... lunching there MR. and MRS. S. Z. (Cuddles) SARALL with LEO FIELDS... by the pool MRS. LEX BARKER (Takall's Mrs.) MRS. BOBBY RIGGS and MRS. JOYCE FAUNCE.

Partying down at Shadow Mountain Club a "dutch" gathering that honored CHARLES LA RUE on the occasion of his birthday. There were MRS. LA RUE, MR. and MRS. HAROLD WEST, ELWOOD and ORA WINDHURST, TOBY and VIRGINIA CURTIS and FRED and PAT LAMPING of Glendale... MR. and MRS. TOM HUMPHRIES entertained there the other night—they have been staying at the Biltmore—for a group of their Angeleno friends, a few of those present were MR. and MRS. DON KELLER, MR. and MRS. LES KELLY (who have been staying at the Desert Inn) and MR. and MRS. JAMES OVIATT... Incidentally the fashion parade at Shadow Mountain over Easter week-end was a terrific show—seen by the tiny chickens and ducks all the small fry received from CLIFF HENDERSON.

GEORGE and ETHEL STREBE stepped away from their Doll House for a short time Tuesday night and gave a dinner down at the Dunes in honor of their friends MR. and MRS. FRED SMITH of El Paso who had been vacationing here instead of in Hawaii as they originally planned. The SMITHS flew back to Texas the next day, FRED being one of the nations well known airplane pioneer pilots who still flies about the country though at the controls of his own plane these days... In the party were MR. and MRS. GEORGE INGHAM... Meanwhile up at their Doll House MR. and MRS. LEON GORDAN were hosting a group that included their daughters GLORIA and GAY, MR. and MRS. AL ROCKETT (actors agent), MR. and MRS. FREDDIE FREDERICKS (he is with Max Factor) and their children, PAT BALES, PAULINE BENON and MR. and MRS. FRED STEPHAN (the motion picture writer)... there the same evening with MR. and MRS. FORREST SUMMERS were ROY BROWN, editor of the Pioneertown Gazette and the Joshua Tree Journal and real estate developer C. R. BUNKER... also caught sight of villagers MARY JANE HICKS and ERNIE DUNLEVIE and CLAUDE and RUTH VALEUR.

MR. and MRS. L. M. GIANNINI were glimpsed hosting a delightful party at the Racquet Club for their daughters ANNE and VIRGINIA (student at Dominican) EDWARD COLLINS of Seattle who is MRS. GIANNINI's brother, MR. and MRS. G. J. COLLINS of Los Angeles (another brother) nephew THOMAS WELSH of Fresno, MR. and MRS. FRANK EDOFF of Piedmont and GALE RICHARDSON who is also from the Northern city... a foursome the same evening were the ALBERT RALPHS and the RICHARD RALPHS (of Ralph's Stores).

EARL and BARBARA COFFMAN, who left the village Wednesday for the Resort committee convention of the Arizona Hotel association in Tucson and the American hotel convention in Pennsylvania, hosted a "soaker party" Tuesday night for DR. and MRS. FRANK PURCELL at the Inn's Remada located behind the hotel... 'Twas a merry gathering as you can well imagine with BARNEY and BARBARA HINKLE, the FRED INGRAMS, the HAROLD HICKS, TOM and BETTY KILEY, MR. and MRS. JACK FRENCH, JOHNNY and TANI BOYLE, the HARRY HARPERS and the ROD BURNHAMS on hand to make the occasion one the honored guests won't forget.

Round and about... MRS. ADDISON HOOF, who has been spending the winter in Santa Barbara (shame on you) is back in her desert home once again... MR. and MRS. HARRY BROTT and a party of friends taking in the Ice Show at the Del Tahquitz... across the room saw JERRY NATHANSON and FRANK PORTNOY chatting with JOYCE DRESDNER and MRS. MAX DRESDNER... JIMMY VAN HEUSEN (the songwriter) dining with MAURY WOLFE... MR. and MRS. FRANK BIRELEY (of the Juices) lunching at Firecliff Lodge... BILL FADDEN, the man who originated our village Oscars, and who we think the Village should reward one to, surveying passers by from in front of his store... MR. and MRS. MIKE LYMAN hosting a dinner group at the R. C. ... MR. and MRS. JOHN GALLOIS flying to San Francisco for a few days... LEONARD SPIGELGASS who wrote the new June Allyson picture "A Matter of Fact" talking with FRANK SINATRA. I'll be seeing you—Marij.

LADIES IN WHITE—And the gentlemen will be in white, too, at the famed annual Snow White Ball to be held at the Tennis Club in Palm Springs tomorrow when hundreds of socialites gather for the gala event. Miss Maureen Collinge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Collinge of Beverly Hills, Miss Sandra Shearer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shearer of Palm Springs and Seattle, assist Mrs. Ray Dodge of Palm Springs and Beverly Hills in preparing the guest list. Grounds of the fashionable Tennis Club will be decorated with an all-white motif for the occasion.

Doing the Village

with MOYA HENDERSON

Spring vacation always brings back many an old timer to the Village which is good. Although we've been seeing less and less of Bill and Betsy Hay these past season were happy that the Easter Sunrise services always brings them back and Bill Hay doing God of the Open Air has become as traditional as Barrymore's Christmas Carol. Helen Gephart, accompanied by her mother and her three youngsters, paid a visit to the Village last week as did Gordon and Vera Nicholson. We were pleased to detect a note of homesickness in the Nicholson's as we kidded them about the smog and traffic of the big city and we predict that it won't be too long before they're back on the desert for good.

Bill Carey has been away at school too long. He was caught moping his brow and complaining of the heat last week which is sheer heresy coming from a native of these parts and it's only the middle of April.

This is the choice time of the year so say the Toby Reeds who make it a point of coming down in the spring when the days are ideal for swimming and the nights are warm enough for outdoor living. The Neil Weatheralls were up from San Diego to be with Dr. and Mrs. Bertram Weatherall over Easter. Scooted an old timer back in the Village visiting this week, Bobbie Seaton was down from San Pedro, where she reports, Bill has forsaken his love for the air and taken to sea as a commercial fisherman. Young Bill has also taken up fishing and we saw Jamie here during vacation.

The C. C. Hoopers, who opened their idyllic cabin for Easter week, drove down to the Village for dinner one evening. They were accompanied by daughter Collette. Marie Butts arrived in the Village from Piedmont via the Idyllwild route Thursday and was joined by husband Bill who had been conventioning in Los Angeles. They, together with the Carl Lykens, Clarence Woodmancees, C. S. Henderson, Lauritz Hansens and the Hansens' houseguests the Torgeson, made up a party at the Tennis Club for dinner on Saturday evening. The Woodmancees' houseguest, Tom Aiken from New Jersey, returned to the East on Friday more enthusiastic with each visit out here.

Little Linda Boyle celebrated her birthday on Easter Sunday and took all of her young friends for a ride in the pony drawn dog cart with Marie Trot getting just as much pleasure out of it as the

Wedding Bells Ring for Local School Teacher

Miss Irene Bushrey, exchange teacher at the Palm Springs high school from San Francisco, last Saturday, April 16, was married to Lawrence A. Cornelius, San Francisco, in a quiet wedding at the Oneonta Congregational church, Pasadena.

The new bride is instructor of high school English and French classes, with an adult evening class in Spanish.

Club Women Enjoy Talk On Charm

By RUTH MARTIN

"Charm is an intangible but can be developed through confidence, assurance, skill, and technique—in what we do, what we say, and how we look," said the beautiful and fascinating Eleanore King in a highly interesting and humorous lecture given at the Palm Springs Woman's club Monday.

A large and enthusiastic audience, which included the senior girls of the Palm Springs high school, was on hand to hear the entertaining, amusing and instructive talk given by Miss King whose column, "Glorify Yourself," appears daily in the Los Angeles Examiner.

Attired in a tailored light suit with green accessories and a stunning veiled white hat by John Frederic, Miss King was the perfect picture of all she advocated in charm and beauty, and her demonstrations of correct posture, sitting, walking and graceful movement made every woman sigh with longing.

When asked what phase of her career was most important to her, Miss King spoke of her desire to put this whole new field of self-improvement into schools everywhere so that all girls might have the advantage of this knowledge instead of only the three percent to which such training is now available.

Eleanore King's newest book "How to Attract Men You'd Like to Know Better" will soon be off the press and judging from the response she received from her audience, the line for purchase of copies will form on the right.

Cathedral City Club Maps Plans For New Season

On Monday night the new officers and directors of Cathedral City Woman's Club met at the L. C. Lewis home for a supper in the patio and to discuss plans for next year.

On Wednesday afternoon the Cathedral club met at the Town Hall for the last meeting of the year. The program for next year under the leadership of Mary Wolseth, president is an ambitious one. The club has just completed its first year as a member of the State Federation and has made an enviable record. It has entertained many state and regional officers and sent delegates to all of the out-of-town meetings.

Five members of the board left today to attend the County Federation meeting at Riverside where the president will make the annual report.

Esther McGee Ill in Hospital

Esther McGee, popular operator of Wonder Palms has been confined at the Community hospital for the past three weeks with a malignant virus infection which, according to attending doctors, is similar to that suffered by many of the World War II veterans in the South Pacific.

Miss McGee, unable to attend to the affairs of Wonder Palms, was forced to close the famous guest hotel down and her recovery is said to require several weeks so that she will not be able to attend her regular summer work at Lake Tahoe.

On the road to recovery, she is now ready for and anxious to see her many friends who have been inquiring for her during the past weeks.

Costons Bid Farewell at Lovely Party

Before leaving for their home in Chicago next week, Mr. and Mrs. James Coston, said farewell to many of their friends Saturday evening with a cocktail party in their lovely winter home on Stevens Road and dinner dance at the Tennis Club.

Assisting in receiving the guests were their attractive daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ling of Brentwood, who with their two children spent Easter vacation with the Costons.

Others hidden to the farewell party were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peck, the William Maloufs, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kelly of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Murphy and their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Handy, of Greeley, Colorado, Mr. Bob Kilburg of Chicago, Mrs. Sally Francine of San Francisco, Miss Lee Anderson, Mr. Joseph Kelly, Mr. Robert Daily, and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Jaines.

mer work at Lake Tahoe. On the road to recovery, she is now ready for and anxious to see her many friends who have been inquiring for her during the past weeks.

Young Smart-Setters Join in Gala Tennis Club Easter Event

The very young smart-setters, some two-hundred strong, turned up for the Easter Egg Hunt at the Tennis Club Sunday morning. To the delight of all there were hundreds of giant toy balloons shaped like rabbits, ducks and smooos, and prizes for each and every one.

To Larry Purcell went the first prize—a leather cowboy belt and gun—for the boy finding the most eggs. Lana Cowan was the lucky girl, and for finding the most eggs among the girls she received a big rabbit. Culver Parker, Jr., and Stephen Parker were winners of large Easter baskets. Then there were blue velvet bunnies and ducks, Easter baskets and balloons for all.

Miss Lee Anderson organized the hunt and was assisted in awarding prizes by Sara and Virginia Renker.

Author is Guest Over Holidays

Among visitors to Palm Springs during Easter week was Ada Anderson, author of "The Clown Scraniche," a story of the French revolution.

She was formerly with the radio and on the stage in Canada and is now doing Americanization work in Hollywood.

During their visit here her husband, Carl A. Anderson, showed pictures of his tours at the Desert Museum.

Enjoyable Affair At Banning Home

Mrs. Betty Libott entertained at a delightful Easter Brunch at her Banning home Sunday noon.

Unusual decorations and favors with a variety of delicious food made the affair most enjoyable.

Guests from Palm Springs were Mildred Veano, Mary Drascho, Jennie Leonasio, Tess Meyer and Marion MacCartan, mother of the hostess.

Highly Successful Season Closed by Woman's Club

The Palm Springs Woman's club adjourned on April 18 for the 1949-50 season on November first.

Mrs. James C. Giegge wishes to express her heartfelt appreciation to all members of the club for the splendid cooperation given her during the past season and the hope that all will return next season, refreshed and rested, to continue the constructive work started during the past year.

Highlight of the meeting was the warm appeal made by Mrs. Donald Lockett, vice-president, for a donation to the Cancer Research fund which netted about fifty dollars.

Appointive officers were announced by Mrs. Matt V. Fowler, recording secretary, who has been such an efficient and pleasing executive during the past season. The appointive officers are as follows: Mrs. Henry S. Reid, parliamentarian; Mrs. Bell B. Hagar, historian; Mrs. Bradstreet Miller, hospitalier; Mrs. Claude L. Yerkes, flowers and decorations chairman; and Mrs. Ralph Shelley, general tea chairman. The decorations committee, consisting of Mrs. Claude L. Yerkes, Mrs. Armand V. Turonnet, and Mrs. William Talbot, created lovely arrangements of Easter lilies, snapdragons, Japanese iris and stocks for the afternoon program and for the beautiful tea in charge of Mrs. Frank Winterton, chairman, and her assistants Mrs. Ted Reed, Mrs. Lloyd Raab, Mrs. Marion L. White, Mrs. Charles H. Burley, Mrs. Bell Hagar, Mrs. Ward A. Hays, and Miss Maude E. McQuillin.

The D. M. Locketts had as houseguests over Easter E. O. Wanser of Los Angeles and William Adams of Dallas, Texas. Sallie Lockett, their daughter, was home for Easter holidays from Pomona college at Claremont.

Prominent in the Life of the Village

Upper left are Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Murphy of Syracuse, New York, and who are guests of the Montecito apartments. Mrs. Murphy, better known as Doris Duncan on the stage, is well known on Broadway as she has starred in several musical comedies and for five years, had her own act over the Keith Orpheum circuit. Later she went into radio and was known as the holly-wood Nightingale. Mr. Murphy is one of the founders of the Carrier Air-Conditioner which has home offices in Syracuse.

Upper right are Dr. and Mrs. Alvin J. Wertheimer with their daughter, Leslie Ruth age 5 1/2, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Milton L. Wertheimer, retired architect, all from Fresno, and who are spending their sixth season at the Caliente Cottages.

Lower left, the Lawrence and Lee writing and directing team at work at the del Marcos Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lee (left) and Jerry Lawrence (right). They came to Palm Springs to work as often as possible and this time they are writing their new Broadway show "See Paris and Live" and it was this team who wrote "Look Ma, I'm Dancin'". They also do the Ronald Coleman show "Favorite Story" which is heard over many radio stations. Mrs. Lee, or Janet Waldo, is radio's Corliss Archer, Emmy Lou on the Ozzie and Harriet show and will be starred in "Young Love" this summer over CBS.

Lower center, are Mrs. Alf N. Monsen with Mr. and Mrs. J. Meherin, all of Juneau, Alaska, are guests of the Town and Desert. Mr. Meherin, who has been an Alaskan for 38 years, is President of the Baranof Hotel and also President of the Meherin Mertel Distributors. Mrs. Alf N. Monsen, daughter of the late ex-governor of Alaska, John W. Troy, is publisher of the Daily Alaska Empire in Juneau.

And lower right is Harry Ephraim of Long Island, New York, who is seeing California for the first time. Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim are guests of Harlow Haven and every day he is finding many desert scenes to paint, the one we see is the organ grinder which was in the parade circus week. Mr. Ephraim has exhibited his work in many New York galleries.

Veteran Navy PRY Catalina's are virtually the only means of communication between the widely scattered islands and atolls of the Pacific.

Cholly Springs

Hold on to your hats kids! Here we go again—to the annual Easter mad-hatters party at the Walter MacManus' where you can't get in unless you're wearing something that looks like a new nightmare by Salvador Dali.

Among the prize chapeaux were those sported by Mrs. Alan Morgan, who donned a bird-cage and then put a live baby chick, and the one by her husband, who took a polo cap, turned it around, added two balloon ears and looked so much like "Harvey" that many of the guests took to nipping right away on those cool and potent silver fizzies.

Many of the gals practically plucked their gardens apart to appear in flower creations, like attractive Mrs. Harry Hudson, whose be-flowered and be-ribboned bonnet out Lilled Dache! Hawaiian straw job with a fringe in front which made her look so exotic, although she said she felt like a sheep dog!

Ramon Handy's tomato can and cleaning mop creation added a touch of chic to the mad scene, while eligible bachelors, attorney Roger Marchetti and architect George Hyam, who had been squiring Joy Lansing around, both came to the party looking like Tyrolean bridegrooms. Could it be that they're in the market? Of course, publisher Oliver Jaynes had to "scoop" the crowd by donning a newspaper creation of Desert Sun headlines. Cholly Springs column was at the top of the stories, so at least once we got top billing from the boss!

Besides all the hat fun, the party turned out to be a triple birthday celebration with "happy birthdays" being sung to Mrs. Austin McManus, Walter E. McManus and radio's Bill Hay, who by the way, is now president of "Bowling on the Green."

In the "hat parade" were the McManuses' own houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hudson and Mrs. Frances Hughes from Santa Monica and Wm. O'Keefe of Los Angeles... Bill and Betty Hay... Mr. and Mrs. Mel Burns of Long Beach with the Earl Cordreys, whose house they have leased for a year... the Reuben Larsens and Virgil Millers of Los Angeles, who just love Palm Springs in the spring... John and Gwen Costello and their house guests Bill Armstrong Jr., Jack Adams and Jim Callanan, college students from Los Angeles... and dozens of others.

Writing in The Sand, Saturday night's "Snow White Ball" at the Tennis Club, which brings the formal season to a close, will not only have frosted trees and crystal decorations, but it will have Marie MacDonald to reign as its "Snow" Queen. The Shadow Mountain has introduced a new desert fashion note, Hopi and Navajo costumes, which use the hoop skirts of the wives of army officers of the 1870's are the latest thing for colorful casual wear... Did you know that Philip Reed, the handsome actor, who is such an active amateur tennis player, has been offered the "pro" job at the courts of the Wonder Palms? Things are so tough in the movie-making business, an actor is smart to have an avocation—or an unemployment check—to fall back on!

Await Report On Highway Route Protest

Report on re-location of Highway 111 through Palm Springs was awaited by city officials from the local delegation which yesterday appeared before state highway commissioners to present the city's side in the argument over the course the highway will take through the northeastern section of the Village.

The delegation was expected back today. City Manager W. E. Alworth, City Engineer George Minturn, Councilman W. A. Waring of the city's highway committee, George Robertson and County Flood District Engineer Max Bookman appeared before the commission to urge adoption of the route advocated by Palm Springs rather than the one laid out by the commission's engineers.

Objection to the latter was based on the claim that it would separate valuable property in the northeast from the main part of the city and would interfere with extension of airport runways. The by-pass route has been on city maps for some time but was held in abeyance during the war years. It is intended to relieve the congestion down town and to route through traffic around the city center.

Airplane Debate Scheduled Today

Frank Broes, Garnet, and William Mins, Thousand Palms, were scheduled to face Judge E. E. Theriault in township court today on charges of grand theft of an airplane.

Complaint was filed by R. B. Hawthorne, Los Angeles, who claimed Mins flew away in his airplane while Broes was talking to him at the local airport. Broes declares that the charge is ridiculous in that Mins is the legal owner of the craft and that the incident was merely a routine repossession of the airplane which, Broes said, Hawthorne bought from Mins.

Pass Shrine Club To Host Dinner

San Geronimo Pass Shrine club will be host to Imperial Potentate George E. Saylor and his divan of Al Malaikah Temple and Shriners from San Bernardino and Elmer at Del Paso hotel, Banning, April 30. It was announced by Kilburn Dean, president of the club, and Col. F. B. Lees, general chairman of the affair.

The event will be a Pre-Desert Ceremonial dinner, just one week before the Shrine trek to Palm Springs on May 7.

A gala program is being prepared and Village Shriners are expected to make up a large part of the throng of 175 expected.

Villagers Attend Gate City Rites

Several Village Masons attended the Maundy Thursday Shrine services held at San Bernardino last week.

Going from the Village were John Archibald, C. S. Raymond, Bill Leonese, Kenneth DuBose, Francis Crocker, Sol Cohen, Charles Burket, George Oliver, M. G. Mead and Harold West.

Museum Notes

Genetics and inheritance will be the subject of tonight's Biology session. Two films, "Heredity" and "Silent Enemy," will be shown. The public is invited to attend these Friday night Biology programs; there is no charge. Eight o'clock.

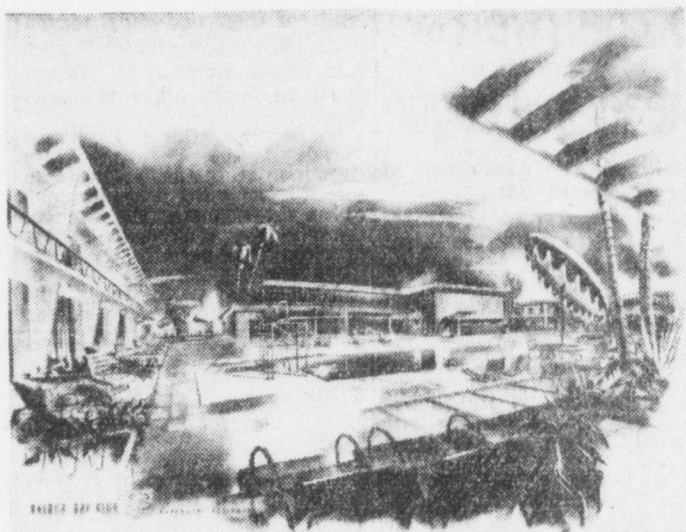

Tomorrow the field trip will be an all-day auto-caravan, no walking involved, to Santa Rosa Peak, which affords a wonderful view across the Coachella Valley. The trip leaves the Museum at 9 a. m.; return at 5. Bring lunch.

TOMORROW NIGHT at eight Charles Larabee will present his program of color movies of the remote Navaho domain, "Unexplored Utah Hinterland." Mr. Larabee will be remembered for the interesting program he presented earlier this season of his recent South American trip. Saturday's presentation is open to the public without charge.

There will be a special public program on Sunday, April 24, at 8 p. m., when Mr. Jim Robertson of Berkeley will show his color slides of the summer treks made with the Museum Director, "American Desert Kaleidoscope." Public invited; no charge.

MONDAY EVENING the final meeting of the Desert Rock Group will be held, with Mr. John Greb in charge. The subject will be Caves and Caverns. Two motion pictures, "Spelunking" and "Carlsbad Caverns" will be shown together with color slides of the Luray Caverns, Mammoth Cave, and Mt. Timpanogos Cave. The public is invited to attend this program at 8 p. m. no charge.

Next Tuesday's Membership program will consist of two films. The adventure thriller, "Trailing the Jaguar," and "Totems." Museum members only, 8 p. m.

INVITING—Architects drawing of the Lanai and pool at the Balboa Bay Club now in the process of an impressive construction and expansion program. Many local winter residents plan to summer there.

Balboa Bay Club Prepares Big Expansion Program

Ray Whitaker and his band who have delighted large crowds at the Palm Springs Tennis Club during the past two seasons have signed up for the summer at the Balboa Bay Club. It was announced this week.

The club has inaugurated an impressive construction and expansion program which will include a new and elaborate clubhouse, a fresh water pool and final, greater beach area and facilities as well as several additional buildings devoted to expanded club features.

The lanai will be landscaped and completely equipped for day and evening dining, dancing and relaxation. Full length glass panels on two sides of the clubhouse will overlook the bay. Existing facilities will either be supplanted by the new buildings or adapted into the overall design.

The new bar and grill will connect the present informal Bay Window bar with the new dining-lounge room. The oval shaped bar will be centered in the room for spaciousness and comfort.

As headquarters for the Southern Yacht Club, it provides moorings and anchorage for some of the most famed yachts in the Southland as well as every type of small craft.

The Golden Opportunity

By Ethel Gillett Whitehorn

The bond issue to be voted on next Tuesday, April 26, will mark a milestone in the history of Palm Springs. Should it be approved by the registered voters, this community will go on record as having at the helm, far-seeing men and women who know, through experience, the value of civic development. Should the bond issue be defeated, then it must be admitted by every citizen who lives here, that the many thousands of people who visit Palm Springs for a day, a week, a month, or longer—appreciate what we have to offer more than we ourselves do.

Cities, large and small, reflect the type of people who live within their borders. When you drive through a community and observe well paved streets, attractive tree-planting, inviting recreational centers, and adequate fire protection, you know at once that there is a community whose citizens are acutely aware of the importance of civic development. On the other hand, when you observe hit-and-miss communities, where neither time nor thought has been given to civic planning, you are glad you are not a part of them.

Let us prove that we can work as well as play. Your YES VOTE on the bond issue, Tuesday April 26, will be the green light to go ahead with many badly needed improvements. By working hard on those improvements during the summer months, Palm Springs next winter will receive the award that goes to cities for "knowing how."

California is America's fastest growing state. The records reveal that since 1944, six thousand new residents, per week, have been and still are arriving in California. The majority of them are settling in the southern part of our state. This means that the City of Palm Springs, long renowned as one of the world's most beautiful resorts, can waste no time in planning for prospective home owners who will seek the many potential assets we have to offer them.

Let us prove that we can work as well as play. Your YES VOTE on the bond issue, Tuesday April 26, will be the green light to go ahead with many badly needed improvements. By working hard on those improvements during the summer months, Palm Springs next winter will receive the award that goes to cities for "knowing how."

Travel Boosters Due Tomorrow For Convention

Palm Springs will be host tomorrow and Sunday to a group which plays an important part in the number of people coming to the Village throughout the season—the Southern California Passenger association and the Seven Seas club. The former is a railroad organization and the latter, steamship and travel, agency.

The convention, to bring 200 delegates here, will have its headquarters at Del Tahquitz hotel and the delegates will be housed there and at La Hacienda and Rossmore hotels.

Besides business sessions there will be sight-seeing jaunts and just fun.

Tanner Motor Livery will be on hand at the S. P. depot to meet the incoming delegates and conduct them on a tour of the Village. After the session the delegates will go to Riverside aboard the Tanner busses and later to their homes.

The convention details were arranged by Jay Rollman and L. J. Robeson of the Santa Fe, and Charles McGann of the Southern Pacific.

Ohrts to Make Ninth Annual Trip Tuesday

Hans and Ida Ohrt plan to take off at 5 a. m. next Tuesday on their ninth annual tandem ride to Palm Springs on a new French two-seater especially built for them.

There will be no try for a record, said Ohrt, just a leisurely ride via Riverside to enjoy the scenery. Their record for the tandem trip is nine hours and 50 minutes. Ohrt, on a single, has made better time than that by considerable margin.

The Ohrts have been taking from 20 to 40 mile daily jaunts conditioning themselves for the Palm Springs trip.

They will be at the Desert Inn again this year and—as usual—Ohrt will probably make a little side trip to La Quinta and back for the exercise.

Oven Too Hot, Firemen Called

Firemen rushed out on call at 6:33 p. m. Tuesday, April 19, to the home of R. S. Furlong, 634 Calle de Marcus where it was found an overheated oven had started some excitement. No damage was done, however, and the flame-chasers listed the incident as "out on arrival."

Business Women Busy on Plans For "Gaieties"

"Oh, What a Beautiful Morning" is the song adopted by the Business Women's Club as an added inspiration to their motto, "Up with the Sun." However, members needed no inspiration to attend the final breakfast of the season Wednesday morning at the Royal Palms Hotel with the largest breakfast attendance this year.

Mrs. Mildred Veano, president presiding, gave final instructions to all committeewomen working diligently on the Gaslight Gaieties being presented April 30 at the Wars Memorial building.

The Gaslight Gaieties, the first presentation of its kind in Palm Springs will consist of a melodrama, olio act, can can girls, community singing, and other acts typical of the Gay Nineties.

Tables will be arranged to seat twelve each, with a capacity of over four hundred in total. Beer, sandwiches, pretzels, and so on, will be furnished guests, all included in the price of the tickets. A booth will be set up on Palm Canyon drive for the convenience of purchasing tickets, or contact any member of the Club. Early purchasers will receive choice tables. Benefits will go to the Club's major project, the Rheumatic Heart Fund.

Sunrise Service Attracts Throng

First Easter sunrise service at the new Palm Desert Community church last Sunday morning attracted the largest congregation so far in the history of the organization said Dr. J. R. Macartney, pastor in voicing his appreciation to all who helped make it an outstanding success.

"The Credibility of the Resurrection" was the topic of his sermon.

Two more services will be held at the new church this season before the summer rest. They will be held in the home of Mrs. Margaret Ward. These services will be on April 24 and May 1.

Dr. E. E. Helms To Speak Sunday

At the service at Community Church at 11 a. m. the Rev. Dr. Elmer E. Helms, of Los Angeles, will preach on the subject "Love spelled in Capital Letters." Dr. Helms is one of the outstanding preachers and leaders of Methodism in the United States. He was pastor in churches in Buffalo, N. Y., and Philadelphia, Pa., and later of the First Methodist Church in Los Angeles during his pastorate, he built a church costing one million dollars and received into the church 6000 members. He is the author of ten books and has been honored by different universities with the bestowal of ten university degrees. Dr. and Mrs. Helms are spending a week in the Village as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Jones at the Lantana Lodge.

The Chancel Choir will sing "Hear My Prayer" by James Stickles.

Christian Endeavor meetings are at 6:15 for Junior High, Senior High and Young Adult groups.

Even Supervisors Cannot By-Pass Their Own Law

Supervisors cannot violate a county ordinance even if they did pass it themselves. So Supervisor William Jones lost a bout at the court house Monday when he urged granting of four free permits after Supervisor Ed Hill told him it would be against the law.

Supervisors may waive the customary fee provided in the county dance law if the events are for a recognized charity. When four requests for free permits came up Monday, Jones moved to grant them all. When told three were questionable and that it would be violating the ordinance, he still insisted.

Supervisor James Easley's motion to deny the three carried, with Jones voting "no."

Faith to be Topic Of Rev. Hogarth

The Rev. Robert M. Hogarth, rector, will preach this Sunday morning of the Easter Octave in St. Paul's in the Desert on "Adventurous Faith" from the Epistle for Low Sunday: "This is the victory that overcometh the world—even our faith."

The Sunday school session at 9:45 a. m. will continue until the end of May and also the family service, which the older children attend before going to their classes. The 8:00 a. m. and 11:00 a. m. services will be discontinued after Trinity Sunday, June 12.

Four children were baptized on Easter eve: Robert Frederick Boldeemann, infant son of Glennon B. and Marjorie Behneman Boldeemann; Angalee Lee Foster, infant daughter of William A. and Barbara Emigh Foster; Francisco L. Pegueros, infant son of Francisco and Hazel Clements Pegueros; and Richard Boston Strause, son of Monroe Boston and Violet Marian Strause.

Final Loop Game Of Season Today

Palm Springs high school Indians will close the 1949 Riverside county league schedule this afternoon at the Field Club playing host to the Coachella Arabs. Coachella boasts three victories out of six starts in the loop while the Indians have two out of six. Both were beaten by the same teams and defeated the same teams except San Jacinto. The latter topped the Indians and bowed to the Arabs. Neither team is in the running for the title which has been safely tucked away by Banning high.

Stellar List of Netters Enters Tournament

A fine group of good local tennis players has already signed up for the Annual Village Tennis tournament starting Monday, according to Charles McDonald, chairman in charge. Acceptance of applications will close Sunday afternoon so that the pairings and matches may be determined by the drawings Sunday evening. It is requested by McDonald that anyone interested in participating be sure to file application by deadline time at the tournament headquarters. Playoffs of singles and doubles according to pairings will commence Monday morning at the three official sites for the matches: the Palm Springs high school, the Racquet club and the Tennis club. Tournament headquarters are located at the Palm Springs Sporting Goods store where Bill

Marvin is in charge of receiving and filling applications. Drawings will also be held there Sunday night. The entire affair will be under the supervision of City Recreation Director Bob Bennett who is also serving on the committee in charge of the event.

Cathedral City Baseball Team to Make Bow Sunday

Sports have come to Cathedral City. A baseball team, organized recently by Al Patane of that city, will play its first game Sunday, April 24, at the new baseball diamond now in the process of surfacing and finishing, about one mile south of that town, opposite the Wonder Pines turnoff. The field has been donated for use by owners of the land, W. L. Hillery and Claude Cobb.

Opposing the Cat City nine will be the Palm Springs Dodgers, who recently wound up its season of county league play. IT IS THE PLAN of the organizers and backers of the team to attempt to get into the county league schedule next fall. In the meantime a great deal of activity is going on in polishing off all the details of such a venture; the field is gradually being put into as good condition as possible; baseball suits have been procured—"flashy ones" according to Patane who states they are red and white; and a few practice sessions have already been held by the players. Mays Copeland will manage the team and will be assisted by Dave Davis of Cathedral City. Copeland also manages the Coachella fire department team, and is said to be very proficient at the managing job.

BESIDES PATANE, owner of Al's Market, other sponsors are the Cathedral City Recreation Center, Cathedral Pharmacy, Sun-Air Development company, DeLuxe Trailer Park, John's Liquor store, Mhoon and Mhoon Contractors, Chevron Gas Station, Scott's House of Gifts, Cathedral Grocery, Hillery Insurance, Eddie's Cafe, Oscar Levier and Miller's Five and Ten. According to Patane, a challenge is issued to any team wishing to try out the new horsehide larpers, and all comers are asked to see Dave Davis at his

Sportsmen Map Fish Fry Plans

"And don't forget May 14—on the O'Donnell Golf course—at 7:30 p. m.," said Warren Heath, president of Palm Springs Sportsmen, Inc., "that's the date for our annual fish fry and if you've ever been to one, you'll want to be there." Tickets for the event went on sale today at the fire hall, Bill Marvin's Sporting Goods store and at the Palm Springs Lockers. According to Heath, the affair is going to be bigger and better and that's no fooling.

Nicks Nickel Eater

The first meter casualty of the new street adornments for parking occurred Tuesday evening as the mail truck, backing into the post office parking area, sheared one off. Driver of the truck, John Alfred Hobbs, brought the entire assembly into the police station for safe-keeping.

Boys' Club Plans To Field 9 Teams Ahead in League

Boys' club members are getting the fever as the softball season approaches and are planning to put as many uniformed teams in the field as possible. Frank Partidge, executive director, says he believes there will be nine clubs in the field this year if sponsors can be found for that many. Sponsorship involves purchase of baseball uniforms bearing the name of the sponsor, and equipment. Last year Tex Driskell sponsored the Rangers; Del Tahquitz hotel the Tahquitz Indians; Peter Shepenko, Pete's Platters; and the Palm House was back of the Palm Pirates. A regular league will be formed as in previous years and games played Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays starting about June 1.

With only two weeks more of league competition the Women's Bowling league of Tuesday night draws a close with the Plaza. Garage team well in the lead with 76 wins as against 24 losses. This figure as a result of this week's tussle with the Desert Shack of Desert Hot Springs in which the invaders suffered a four-game loss to the local mechanics. Vi Hubbs was top scorer for the evening with a sound 514 to assist the league leaders.

Second spot is held by Ben's Texaco Service with 60 wins, 40 losses. This after administering a four-game win from the Banning Nite Spot Cafe. Village Pharmacy is in third spot, and Bullock's broke even, 2-2 to maintain the soda-jerk gals' even score in wins and losses, 50 each. Bullock's, as a result of their two wins, moved up to fifth place with 36-64 over Nite Spot, now 35-65. Desert Shack in fourth place, is scored 43-57. A peculiar thing happened Tuesday in the play when Anita Kuschner of the Bullock's team scored exactly the same for each of her three games, 104. Chances on this type of a statistic never occurring are said to be extremely low. After two more weeks the cuties wind up for the season

Leaves Granted Police Officers

Leaves of absence were granted two members of the Palm Springs police force this week, Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann announced. William Hecht and John Hollinger will leave May 1 to return to the force in the fall. With only one more evening of play, the private sweepstakes event.

Seniors Shine In Rehearsals For Annual Play

"CHARLIE'S AUNT" The senior play is getting well under way. They are rehearsing the first act this week. Co-directors John Schwendiman and Alex Hammond said "the student actors look very good." There have been some additions made to the staff: Tony Jupe is assistant director and he will act as an alternate for any member who might be forced to drop his part in the play. Betty Wright is house manager and head usher. Elanne Purnell and Vicki Matloff are in charge of publicity. Connie Nash, Marleen Watlet and Jackie Kingsbury are the prompters. Mr. Schwendiman said that the tickets are expected to go on sale some time this week and may be purchased from any member in the senior class.

Senior Sketches

Remember the president of the junior class in '48? Well, that's just one of the many offices a certain graduate of 1949 held in an expert way during her high school career. This week's senior sketch brings to light a charming, seventeen year old female. She is five feet, two inches tall and her lovely figure graces the height nicely. Her curly, long, blond hair frames a peaches and cream complexion and dreamy, hazel eyes. Her winning smile and friendly attitude have won her many friends among the students. This girl has an A average throughout her four year enrollment and is a member of the D. A. R. Her willingness to participate in any work at hand has made her a model student and she is noted for doing her job well. Pomona is her college goal and she is planning to major in education.

Wonderful Chia Coming

A wonderful 'Chia' is in store for you this year. It was in Room 4 during activity period today, watching the Chia staff at work, and from what I saw I am certainly glad I bought my 'Chia' at the first of the year. This year's 'Chia' has more pictures than any other before, and Judy Spaulding has done a very good job on the illustrations. The theme this year is the '48er idea. Most of the book, from what I hear, has been sent to the engravers. All that is lacking is a few pictures, that were taken today. So on the last day of school be prepared for a great 'Chia.' Elaine Purnell.

To Close Today

Our last baseball game of the season is to be held here this afternoon with Coachella. Coachella was regularly scheduled for last week but the event had to be postponed. Palm Springs high school has

GAZOOZIT

By ANN What a week-end! The poor little Easter bunnies certainly had something to talk about. The last seen of them was as they scampered back toward their holes to wait for next year's holidays. Thursday night a small gathering held forth at Thousand Palms. Some of the corner couples seen there were Marleen Watlet and Kirk Kaste, Connie Nash and Chuck Marlow (on leave from the Navy), Jackie Kingsbury and Bill Hammond, Deborah Gordon and Bill Sloucum, Pat Warren and Bud Sale, and wandering around were Gordon Inman and some of his buddies. Let us also note that those stupendous tennis players, Nicky Nichols and Ben Chaffey returned from their 2 day absence Thursday night and gave the girls a thrill. "Alias Nicky Beal" seemed to have drawn about half the students of P.S.H.S. Friday night. Seen at the show (with morbid faces) were Nancy Nye and Jim Willis, Jean Reid and Mike Malloy, Marilyn Sorum and Don Herlihy, your aspiring reporter, and Dick Moseley, and galloping through the lounge, that old gentleman of U.C.L.A.—Barry Miller. One group that really saw the town that night was the one that Betty Wright and Mort Gilbert entertained. Sandra Small and Mary Jane McCabe were with Gary and Ronnie La Verne respectively and they really painted the town six shades of the rainbow. I should mention that Robert Higgins had "her" ladies, maybe the song "I'm Always True to You in My Fashion" should be the theme. News also got around that Penny Haley and Eddie Weiss were enjoying each other's company.

The S.C.-Michigan track meet attracted the ever faithful fans of S.C., Betty Wright and Mort Gilbert. Brownie Browne and Eddie Weiss, Thursday. Wonder how they liked that score? Saturday night Janet Jaynes threw another one of her scrumptious shindigs. A few of the guests who were there to wish Nicky Nichols a Happy 18th birthday were Sandra Cordrey and Gavin Herbert, Janet Jaynes and Ben Chaffey, Joni Marsh and Corky Hammond, Nicky and Brownie, Marilyn Marsh and Joey Flavin, Adele Woods, Jay Hughes, Anne Detzer, Dick Clarke, Bea Bailey, Frank Purnell, and Chuck Bond. It seems everyone was going somewhere on Saturday. Elanne Purnell and Jack Wilcox with her parents spent the week-end in Idyllwild. Doesn't seem possible that after such a week-end anyone would be able to arise at 4:30 a. m. the next morning and attend Easter sunrise services, but a large group of the high students were seen enjoying the lovely music and inspiring words, Mary Louise Klug and Marilyn looked just too charming in their Easter bonnets. Millie Krug and Jim Partridge were there with Millie looking just like Easter in her outfit. Pat Fowler and Bob Dekker, and Norman Rasmussen and Donella Knapp were some of the other couples seen. There probably were lots of others but your reporter was just a little too sleepy to see them. Flash: Vicki Matloff finally got Bob's argyles finished. If anyone started going steady they didn't get the word around so we don't have the news. The question of the week is: Who is this luscious looking blonde that Bob Hall is seen with every vacation? Well, it's adios for now.

Student Court After Violators

Student court, which meets every Thursday after school and every Friday during activity period, has been busily working to set penalties on students who are caught smoking, ditching, destroying school property and using profane language. All students caught are to have a trial, however. Henry Greeley, the advisor, suggested that no cases be brought before the court until some by-laws were established. He asked for a group to work together and establish these laws. Since the student court is a separate body from the student council, it was voted that the only student council member that should be allowed in the student court was Ben Chaffey, who is the presiding judge. The active members of the student court are: Mary Jean Lennie, Jane Wallace, Bill Hotchkiss, Janet Jaynes, Anne Detzer, Dale Summers, Chuck Bond, Brownie Browne, Ben Chaffey, Nicky Nichols, Adele Woods and Mabel Potter.

had a good season this year but next year's team should be tops. Next year's team will include Chuck Bond, John Black, Joe Cervantes and Willie Kalasky. Most of the school is hoping for a much better season next year.

Girls' League Busy on Fashion Show Program

The girl's league is busily whipping into shape the plans for the fashion show. The date set for the show is April 28, and it is to be presented around Chaffey, Joni Marsh and Corky Hammond, Nicky and Brownie, Marilyn Marsh and Joey Flavin, Adele Woods, Jay Hughes, Anne Detzer, Dick Clarke, Bea Bailey, Frank Purnell, and Chuck Bond. It seems everyone was going somewhere on Saturday. Elanne Purnell and Jack Wilcox with her parents spent the week-end in Idyllwild. Sophomores Put On Assembly

By ELAINE PURNELL Hear ye! Hear ye! The sophomore class talent court is now about to convene. That was the beginning of a wonderful sophomore assembly that was held here last Thursday. The first case brought before Judge Roland Hilscher was the case of Pat Richards who sang "It's a Grand Night for Singing." The second case was "daring" Darrell Plymire playing "Nine Beat Boogie" on the piano, with Allen Bond on the drums. Charlie Black and Jack Fougere were hilarious as a couple of jokers (?). Joe Garcia and his gang presented his case by playing "Blue Moon" and "Siboney." The next case was a group of dancers directed by Joanie Marsh. They were dressed as penguins and did a dance to the song "Penguins at the Waldorf." As a surprise attraction Eddie Weiss joined them dressed in the brightest shorts ever made! The next case was Pat Wilson who sang "Make Believe." Pat has an outstanding soprano voice and a warm natural style. The last case was the "Dills Trio" consisting of Jimmy Dills, Bobby Brown, D. D. Hines. They sang "She Wouldn't Be This," "My Walking Cane," and then as an added attraction Jimmy Dills presented for the

School Singers Greet Dawn at Palm Desert

Alex Hammond's combined Boys' and girls' chorus sang for the Easter Sunrise Service which was held at the site of the proposed Shadow Mountain Community Church last Sunday morning, April 17. The 35 chorus members arose at 3:30 in the morning to take part in what Rev. John Macartney said, "Would remain as a treasured memory in our hearts forever." It was the first time that an Easter sunrise service had been held in the Shadow Mountain vicinity and Dr. Macartney hopes that the spot, a few hundred yards northeast of the Shadow Mountain, will become an annually used site for the Easter Religious ceremonies. After the 45 minute service, during which the chorus sang Borntiniansky's "Churubio Hymn" and "Now Thank We All Our God" by Henry Van Dyke, the high school group was invited for breakfast at the near by club for a filling dish of ham 'n' eggs. The grand finale was an original adaptation of "There's No Business Like Show Business" with everyone in the cast participating.

Attorney Ruskin Victim of Thief

Attorney Saul Ruskin put in his appearance at the local police station Tuesday at 5:50 p. m. to announce the loss through burglary of a $150 ring and approximately $150 in cash. The burglar was said to have effected an entrance through a bedroom window by forcing the outside screen, entering the premises and rifling the dresser, taking the money from a drawer plus a Chinese-carved box containing the ring.

FIRE INSURANCE and THE BOND ISSUE

We have been asked by many property owners about that portion of the bond issue relating to increased fire protection facilities, and what benefit will result to insurance rates if a new fire station is built.

A careful review of the subject has been made with the Board of Fire Underwriters. (This Board grades cities and towns for fire rating purposes.) It is apparent that Palm Springs is deficient in many badly needed fire-fighting facilities. Because of the growth in area being served by our one fire department, and because the fire-fighting facilities have not kept pace with the fire-fighting needs, certain improvements must be made in Palm Springs to maintain our present rating.

We recommend a YES vote on the bond issue to provide $150,000 capital funds for fire protection. Then it will be the responsibility of your City Council to spend this money wisely, in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Fire Underwriters—in the direction of rate reduction—and for the greatest protection of lives and property.

Almost every civic organization of the city has gone on record as favoring the approval of these IMPROVEMENT BONDS. There is a vital need for every one of the proposed improvements and they will all benefit every resident and property owner directly or indirectly. These most-needed improvements have been selected by the City Council in cooperation with a large group of civic leaders. They all urge that every voter support this issue by voting "YES" on all FIVE CIVIC IMPROVEMENTS next Tuesday.

Wallace of Riverside Voiture 394 will put on the third degree before a group representing every county in southern California.

The local degree team is under the direction of J. M. Connell, conductor. The wrecking crew is composed of, besides Connell, Homer Jenkins, George Kreimer, C. V. Knupp, Tom Kieley and Jay W. Morrison.

In the evening at 9:00 p. m. the Coachella Voiture in conjunction with Owen Coffman Post 519 American Legion will hold a dance at the auditorium for members of the 40 and 8, Le gionnaires and Auxiliary members plus guests. Music will be by Guy Merrill's orchestra.

Amvets to Meet

Palm Springs Amvets Post 34 will hold a regular meeting next Monday evening at the War Memorial building in what is to be its last gathering prior to the state convention, May 5-9. Commander Jay Rollman states this is to be a very important meeting in that official delegates for the state convention will be selected and he urgently requests every Amvet in the Village to attend this meeting for the voting.

At its regular Tuesday lunch-meeting at the Chi Chi restaurant, Palm Springs Soroptimists heard an address by Barney Hinkle, chairman of the Citizens Committee for Civic Improvement, regarding the bond election next Tuesday. The group as a whole voted to endorse the program as a group. Hinkle's subject was "Bond Election and the Overall Plan for Palm Springs Improvement."

It was announced that the following members would make the trip to Phoenix for the South-west Regional convention this weekend: President Madge Holderman, Delegate Edna Brott, Delegate Gladys Capper, Gladys Denton, Blanche Denslow, Esther Weingarten and Katherine Finchy.

Guests present at the meeting were Rachel Denslow and Virginia McDaniel.

Await Action by Council on Plan For May Clean-up

City Beautification committee in session Tuesday with John Connell, chairman, presiding, decided to await the proclamation of a Spring or Fall clean-up campaign from Mayor Charles Farrell if city council so desires a drive.

Annually, in the past, there has been a clean-up drive in the Spring and one in the Fall. Last year the entire month of May was so designated with trophies to winning district. District Two has won the silver cup two years in a row and if victorious again, keeps the trophy permanently.

Early action by city council on clean-up plans is anticipated.

Meeting Monday To Start United Jewish Appeal

First steps in the 1949 United Jewish Appeal will be taken here Monday at 8 p. m. when a meeting will be held at the Palm Springs Biltmore. It was announced this week by Dr. Burton Adair and Herman Reich, co-chairmen of the drive.

Reuven Dafni, first consul of Israel to the seven western states, will be the speaker of the evening. A native of Yugoslavia, he was educated in Vienna and when still in his teens, emigrated to Palestine where he has taken an active part in the affairs of that area.

He served in the British army as a lieutenant doing intelligence work behind the German lines in Yugoslavia. After the war he returned to Palestine and later was one of four members of the first Haganah mission to the United States. He has travelled throughout the nation on behalf of the United Jewish Appeal. He was appointed consul to the western states last September.

Last year the United Jewish Appeal raised $25,000 in Palm Springs. They hope to surpass that mark this year.
